We have added more since last week's postcard

This is a Dutch barn complex belonging to Todd Rodgers, which has been undergoing renovations for several years. The tour will also include two more stops, a Dutch barn in Hopewell Junction, and the East Fishkill Historical Society Site which includes another Dutch Barn, the mid-eighteenth century Brinkerhoff House and interesting outbuildings.

Wappingers Falls is just south of Poughkeepsie-an hour and 38 minutes from Albany.
