

THE DUTCH BARN PRESERVATION SOCIETY'S REPORTER - FALL 92

COMING EVENTS:

Rensselaer County barn tour, 26 Sept. 92
Annual Meeting, 17 Oct. 92

SPEAKERS: Mark Hesler, Greg Huber, and Harold Zoch were speakers in various areas during the report period.

DUTCH BARN EXHIBITS: The Society's exhibit was provided to the Farmers Museum, 19-20 Sept. It is anticipated that the exhibit will be at the Bethlehem Library, and at Clermont, 17-18 Oct. and possibly at Van Alen Farm days.

Material for a Dutch Barn display was provided to the Guilderland Library. Vince Schaefer, Everett Rau and Harold Zoch provided the material and set-up.

HOT LINES:

Remember Sheila Audet, 518-768-2215, is coordinating matching barn removals with persons or organizations wanting them.

Mark Hesler, President DBPS, 518-861-7248, should be contacted if you need a Dutch Barn speaker.

Louis Caputzal, 413-229-2704, has copies of single issues or complete sets of prior issues of the DBPS "Newsletter" for sale. Single issues $2.00, sets of five, $6.95, postpaid.

Responsible persons have been designated to provide assistance with Dutch barn questions. Some counties are covered. A list of the individuals and counties covered will be supplied in the next issue.

GLEANINGS FROM DBPS TRUSTEE MEETINGS:

A continuation of the barrack raising at the Carl Touhey site is anticipated for late fall. Everett Rau, 518-355-0411, should be contacted if you would like to be notified. Workers and viewers are welcome.

Carolina Lazzari will have available for sale, shortly, note paper with Dutch barn drawings.

Jack Wemp will be doing a painting of the Wemple Barn. Perhaps prints will be available.

This fall, prior to ground freezing, further work on the Lazzari-Wemple Barn is planned.
